FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 15, 1883.

Black and white cakes made on short notice at S. Fuhs'.

Don't forget the quilt at Crutcher & Starks'. A few more chances left.

For SALE.—A good second-hand upright boiler, 8 by 24. Apply to Ferguson & Meek.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church cleared something near $250 on their Christmas market Thursday night.

Mrs. Vandiver has given up her boarding-house and removed to one of Miss Venie Herndon's houses, on Logan street, South Side.

Novelties in Toys at Banta's.

Mr. Frank Harper, of Woodford, the owner of Longfellow and Ten Broeck, has presented the Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, in this county, with a new carpet.

Mr. Dan. Glanton, having sold his farm near Bloomington, has rented from Mr. Joe Robinson his farm on Pea Ridge, known as the Sheed Place, and removed his family to it the first of the week.

Johnnie Cassell says if his girl will take a chance in the raffle for the quilt she will have equivalent to two chances, because if she wins she will get it, and if he wins she will certainly get it.

Go to Howard Bros'. to-day for fine cakes, fruit and confections, North and St. Clair street, Bridge.

Celluloid is being substituted for type metal in making stereotype plates. It is claimed the celluloid will wear longer than metal. The advertisement headed "patents," in another column, is a cut made of this material.

The new Opera House is nearly completed. The chairs are being put in, the scene painter is at work on the drop curtain and it is expected that the opening will take place on the evening of the 21st or 27th. The Committee of the Council have secured the Clara Scott Combination for the two opening nights, and after that it will be turned over to Mr. A. C. Wood, the lessee.

Meers, S. & J. H. Told have opened a wholesale and retail coal office at the grocery of Mr. H. B. Williams, in South Frankfort, where they will be glad to receive orders for the best quality of coal at the lowest prices. Mr. Peter E. Told will always be found in the office, and will be assisted by Mr. Campbell Steele, who can be found at the office of Meers, Hord & Trahne, and will give any information which may be desired.

There came near being a serious accident at the intersection of Broadway and Ann streets Wednesday morning. Mrs. L. Labrot and one of her children were out riding, and in passing one of the City Mills delivery wagons at that point the wheels of the two vehicles became entangled, and before they could be extricated, the yard engine came up the track and so frightened the horses attached to the carriage that it was as much as three or four men could do to prevent their running away. The engine was stopped, however, in time to prevent any more damage than a bad scare for the occupants of the carriage and a broken strap or two.

A fine Jersey Cow belonging to Mr. W. J. Chinn, while grazing in the Coleman Spring lot in South Frankfort, Thursday morning, was shot by some unknown person and her hind leg broken. She was valued at $500. Mr. Chinn having paid $400 for her last year in Pennsylvania, and is with calf by Regina's Rex, a fine bull in Pennsylvania. The broken bone has been set and the leg placed in plaster, and every effort will be made to save her life; but it is feared she cannot be saved on account of her condition.

This is the result of the promiscuous shooting that is kept up in that section of the city by boys and hunters, and the attention of the police is called to it. The city limits were extended so as to include that territory in order to put a stop to just such practices, but it seems it has done little good. Persons living in the neighborhood heard the report of the pistol and saw the cow fall where she stood near the spring, but no one knows who did it. Can't the police find out?

Lebanon Ridge.

Mrs. Emma Baxter, of Midway, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mary Jane Lee. Mrs. Mary Gipsan is visiting Mr. John Warren this week. Mr. Tom Woods, of Shelby county, visited Mr. James Roberts last week. Rusty Cass passed over the ridge last Monday, en route home from Frankfort.

The youngest child of Mr. E. L. Lee, which has been sick with scarlet fever, is better. Mr. Sam Cain, of Lebanon Ridge, went to Frankfort with a wagon load of wheat to mill last Monday.

Mr. Maize, the toll gate keeper, visited Mr. Hugh Hearden and Sol Harlow. The youngest child of Mr. E. L. Lee, which has been sick with scarlet fever, is better. Mr. Sam Cain, of Lebanon Ridge, went to Frankfort with a wagon load of wheat to mill last Monday.

There was a social party given at Mr. Thompson Herrell's Thursday night, which passed off very quiet. The following were present: Messrs. Tom Rodgers, Carr Rodgers, Newton Harrod, James Miller, Joe Paris, Berry Danens, Geoffrey Rodgers, Bob Harrod, John J. Harrod, George Miller. The ladies were Misses Rosa Shaw, Lizzie Allen, Henrietta Allen, Collie Shaw, Lillian Harrod, Margaret Pullman.

Flat Creek.

So here we go. Black hares are plentiful. Hurrah for the 20th. Mr. Tom Rodgers returned home Sunday evening from a visit to friends near Eminence, Bell View. Since Hawk Eye speaks of John Rossell's drinking the healing waters of the quarry springs, it seems reasonable that those noted springs which have been so much talked about are healing as much as the cure with Ratus at Sulphur Lick. He got tired looking at the beautiful scenery, drank the healing waters and became so sound and well that he has come home, and that is the reason he has quit writing. Whenever you get ill again, Runa, come back to the Lick; we love to read your writing.

Mr. Punch and Judy, have a good boundary between the cages, as we can see elbow off as far as Tom Kester's High ridge. So you can spread out over the broad expanse. Sunday evening four young men viz. Pat Harrod, Wallace Quire, Dave Phillips, and George Miller went a courting. After being at the house of the dainties some time they became alarmed at seeing a smoke rise up as if a neighbor's house was on fire. The last we heard from them they had almost run themselves to death. When they reached the house that they thought was on fire they found only a smoke in the meat-house and the owner was busy playing marbles. You must be more certain next time, boys. The correspondent attended a debate at Pleasant View school-house Wednesday night which was very exciting. The question was: Which has a greater right to complain of the treatment received at the hands of white men, the Indian or the negro. The question was discussed by Mr. James Hallett and Charlie Quire, in the affirmative, and James Harrod and Willis Rodgers in the negative. The former came out winner not by speaking but by prejudice on the part of the judges.

J. J. J.

Personal.

Mrs. S. P. Browler and Miss Florrie Owen left Tuesday morning for a visit to Louisville.

Mr. Lee C. Woodson, who has been making his home in Kansas for the past year, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Judge J. H. Lewis and Mrs. J. J. A. E. Richards, who have been quite ill at the Capital Hotel for the past two weeks, are improving.

Mrs. J. Lewis returned Tuesday afternoon from a two weeks visit to relatives in Fayette county.

Miss Hallie Gault, who has been quite ill, is improving slowly.

Miss Edith Shelton, of St. Louis, Mo., who has been visiting Mrs. Edmund Botts, this county, for several weeks, will leave for her home to-day.

Miss Carrie Hanly, of this county, will leave for St. Louis this morning to spend the winter.

Mrs. C. A. Nelson returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Madison county.

Mrs. Margaret Egbert has been visiting relatives in Allen this week. Miss Hallie Hermon returned Thursday from a week's visit to Louisville.

Everything good to eat at Banta's.

MARRIED.

At Madison, Ind., on the steamboat Hornet, by the Rev. Mr. E. A. Dobb, on December 9, 1883, J. M. PRYOR, JR., and Miss LAVINA BLAKE, daughter of Thomas Black, all of Franklin county, Ky.

DIED.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 15, 1888.

ARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

Tobacco shippers, read Rodman & Sneed's advertisement.

Dr. J. H. Young, of the Military Institute, will conduct the services at the Methodist Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Rev. S. H. Salia will preach at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, at Steadman-town, Sunday night, Dec. 16th, 1888.

A Liberal discount will be given on all cash yearly subscriptions to Periodicals taken this month at Marshall's News Depot. 8c.

New York Ledger, Weekly, Fireside Companion, Saturday Night and Family Story Paper for five cents each at Marshall's News Depot. 8c.

Dick Higdon has taken a chair at the barber shop of Smith Bros., on Broadway, where he will be glad to have all his old friends call and see him.

Mr. P. R. Pattie is offering a farm of two hundred acres of good land, lying on the railroad, in this county, for thirty-five hundred dollars. Cheap enough.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Humphreys, who died at her home near Spring Station Thursday, were interred in the family lot in the Cemetery at this place Saturday morning.

Mr. Frank K. Rodman, of this city, and Miss Nacio Archer were married at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati, at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening, Elder George Darile, of this city, officiating.

Elder P. H. Duncan commenced holding a Sunday-school Institute at Grassy Springs Church yesterday, the session of which will be continued to-day and to-morrow. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wm. Coleman, of Scott county, died suddenly on Sunday night at 11 o'clock, after an illness of only a few hours. She was a daughter of Mr. Robert T. Penn, of Peak's Mill, this county.

Judge Wm. Lindsay and Miss Eleanor Holmes were married in the parlor of the Capital Hotel Tuesday morning by Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis. They left on the 10:20 train for a trip to Florida and Cuba.

Miss Mary K. Williams died at the residence of her sister, on Washington street, Tuesday morning, after an illness of three years with consumption. The funeral took place Wednesday from the Episcopal Church.

There will be a meeting of Frankfort Council, No. 7, R. T. of T., at the photograph gallery of Mr. H. G. Mattern on Monday evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired as there will be an initiation, and the regular election of officers will be held.

Miss Iva Miles, of this city, and Mr. Guy Enmitt, of Louisville, were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John E. Miles, Wednesday afternoon, Elder Paph Julian, of Madison, Indiana, officiating. They took the C. & O. train for their future home in Louisville.

Several of our neighboring towns who have tried the Standard time have had their clocks set up to Solar time again. Why can't Frankfort do likewise? Our people would soon learn the difference between the city and railroad time and no one would be inconvenienced.

Mr. W. H. Parent, of Bridgeport, brought to this office on Tuesday some of the finest eating apples we have seen in a long time. They were of the Tsapehockens and New York Pippin varieties and twelve of them filled a peck measure full. They were of a delicious flavor and were greatly enjoyed by all hands and the devil. Come and see us again, Will.

A child of Mr. Milton P. Craig, of this county, was bitten in the face, one day last week, by a pet cat, which had been bitten by a mad dog, and great fears are entertained that the little one will have hydrophobia. The cat jumped about in a singular manner, bit two dogs on the place, and gave other evidences of having hydrophobia, and it and the dogs were killed. The child received medical treatment immediately, a mad stone was procured and applied to the bite, and every effort made to drive the poison from its system.

Elder P. S. Fall will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning.

Why is it that so many neglect coughs and colds until they get consumption? Why is it so many die of consumption? It is because they will not come and be healed. Every one knows a sure conquerer of throat diseases is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Will Cherry, and that it can be got of any drug-gist.

A Castle of this Knights and Ladies of the Golden Rule, a co-operative insurance organization, was organized in this city December 6th, by Messrs. Wm. B. Moore and S. M. Bernard, of Louisville. It is called Capital Castle, and the Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Assistant Auditor are among its officers. Following are the officers chosen to serve until the regular annual election in January.

Gov. J. Proctor Knott, Past Commander.
Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, Commander.
Mrs. Adlie Garrett, Vice Commander.
H. J. Hyde, Master at Arms.
Rev. Jas. M. Lewis, Secretary and Financial Reporter.
Wm. S. Saffell, Treasurer.
Chas. S. Green, Prelate.
Mrs. Mary A. Hyde, Herald.
J. M. Stephens, Warden.
Willis L. Ringo, Sentinel.
Drs. Smith and Brown, Medical Examiners.

Hon. Jas. W. Tate, Hon. Thos. H. Corbett, and Ed Hensley, Esq., Trustees.

If you feel yourself growing weaker, your strength failing, the functions of your body becoming impaired, take warning in time. Your blood is starving for want of nourishment. Dr. Quessett's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla is food for the blood. It purifies this stream of life and strengthens every part of the body, rebuilds a broken down constitution, produces dreamless slumber, and restores wasted energies and a shattered nervous system. A trial bottle will convince. No other remedy equals it.

Miss Ollie Compton gave an elegant entertainment to her friends at her father's residence, at the Forks of Elkhorn, Wednesday evening. The attendance was very large, many young people from this city, the Stauping Ground, and the immediate neighborhood being present, and all expressed themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening indeed. A splendid supper was spread to which all did ample justice.

Miss Ella Freeman, of Bridgeport, this county, and Mr. J. Wesley Coleman, of Owensboro, were married Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Oscar Farmer, in Louisville, by Rev. S. C. Humphreys, of Glasgow. They left for their future home in Owensboro on the afternoon boat.

No disease will trouble you if you keep your blood pure, your kidneys strong, your bowels regular and your mind clear by an occasional use of that great reviver and supporter of health and strength known as Dr. Quessett's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Its praise should be in every mouth; its merit should be known by all!
